Matthew 25 - Final Teachings (Part 1 of 3)

(Please prayerfully read Matthew 25, a mere 46 verses, verses that can change your life, for eternal life.)

The new Church year, year B, starts on Sunday, December 3. During this new year, most of the Gospel passages for Sundays will be taken from the Gospel of St. Mark.

For these last Sundays of Year A, we travel through chapter 25 of St. Matthew's Gospel. We can consider this chapter as among the final words of Jesus before His Passion because the next chapter includes St. Matthew's account of the Last Supper, leading to the Cross.

Chapter 25 of the Gospel according to St. Matthew contains some of Jesus' most powerful teachings. In this chapter Jesus paints three potent, and I dare say, sobering parables for us to bring to prayer, for us to take stock of our lives, for us to discern on which of the two paths to eternity are we walking. Jesus doesn't mince words here. We choose our eternal home, Heaven or Hell, by how we live.

With that in mind, over these 3 weekends my reflections will be very brief. To a great extent I plan to step aside and let Jesus do most of the teaching. I will keep my comments to a bare minimum. I will, however, stress certain verses from the parable of the day. Some of these verses will be in very large print so that those who see the bulletin front will get the gist of Jesus' message for the world even without reading the whole parable. An example of what I mean is found below.

-Fr. Michael

Weekend #1, November 11-12, Matthew 25:1-13

Excerpt, a key point from "The Parable of the Ten Virgins"

...the bridegroom came and those who were ready went into the wedding feast with him. Then the door was locked. Afterwards the other virgins came and said, 'Lord, Lord, open the door for us!' But he said in reply, 'Amen, I say to you, I do not know you.' Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour. (Mt 25:10-13)

The door to the wedding feast (Heaven) was locked for those who were sleeping, who were not ready for the return of the bridegroom (Jesus).

Amen, I say to you, I do not know you. May we never hear those words from Jesus. May we be spiritually awake when Jesus comes for us. Therefore,...

Stay awake,
for you know
neither the day nor the hour. (Mt 25:13)

Indeed we do not know when He will come for us. If we are awake, spiritually alive, meaning no unconfessed mortal sin, we will rejoice as we have never before (!) when He comes. If we're spiritually dead, we will beg the mountains to fall on us (Rev. 6:16), a better fate than facing Our Lord's just judgment of us.

Therefore, stay awake. Seek God's will in all things.

We would like to take this time to thank everyone who made our 89th bazaar a success. To the many volunteers who took the time to help set up booths, take down booths, visited merchants to solicit donations, to the chefs who prepped, cooked, cleaned, donated food items, delivered the delicious spaghetti dinners, and many, many more volunteers who gave of their time to manage a booth, a HUGE THANK YOU. If we have left anyone out, our apologies. Without you all to help, we could not have pulled it off. Last, but certainly by no means least, THANK YOU to everyone who came to the Bazaar, bought soup supper, spaghetti dinner tickets, drawing tickets, bid on the silent auction, took a chance on the Meat wheel, bid on dessert auction items (with great gusto!), and so much more. We hope you had a great time!
