Memorial Day. What comes to mind when one thinks of Memorial Day? Some time off, school is over – kids are home, warm or hot weather, time to go outdoors and enjoy a barbeque, a picnic, vacation time, the unofficial beginning of summer, and here in Colorado – time to go camping or climb a 14er? All good things to think about, all good things to prepare for. God certainly wants us to enjoy a bountiful joyful life here on earth, but of course, Memorial Day has much deeper meanings for some and may be a day to stop for a moment and consider why we have a Memorial Day Weekend.

Memorial Day, formerly known as Decoration Day, has been celebrated since 1868. 1868? The year 1868 was just three years after the end of the most devastating war the United States of America ever fought, our own Civil War or the War Between the States and was instituted to honor and mourn military personnel who died while serving their country.

We certainly mourn those that have gone before us, but Memorial Day has the additional ingredient of honoring those military personnel that didn't come home, did not return to loved ones. Why? Jesus, our risen Savior, said it best "No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends." These military men and women laid down their lives for each and every one of us. They paid the ultimate price, made the ultimate sacrifice so that you and I would remain free to live in this great country, the United States of America. We honor their sacrifice; we honor them, and we thank God that we have been blessed with men and women in uniform that protect us daily and are willing to put their lives on the line for their fellow countrymen and women.

So, as you prepare a barbeque, a picnic or some other fun outdoor activity this weekend, take a moment to thank the Lord for all the blessings He has bestowed on us, on our great country and on our way of life. Say a silent prayer for those who gave their lives that we may live and entrust them to our Heavenly Father.

May the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace.
Amen.

Deacon Bernie Schwartze, Colonel, USAF (Retired)
