A Journey Through John 6

This weekend we depart, briefly, from the Gospel of Mark. We will return to Mark on September 1. In the meantime the Church directs our attention to Chapter 6 from the Gospel of John, which focuses on one of Jesus' primary teachings, the Bread of Life Discourse, the reality that Holy Eucharist is truly His Most Precious Body and Blood, true food, food for our souls on this brief journey through life.

For these five weekends, Archbishop Aquila has provided homily aids for our priests and deacons so that a common message is shared throughout the Archdiocese, quoting the Archbishop "for the upbuilding of the local Church." He has also provided a theme for each of the five weekends. I share the themes for these five weekends below, desiring that we prepare in a special way to enter into these weekends.

The Church teaches that the Eucharist is "the source and summit of the Christian life" (Catechism #1324) Jesus is the source and summit of the Christian life, right? Since the Eucharist is the Body and Blood of Jesus, we may accurately state, with no fear of error, that the Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life. We adore You, Lord Jesus in Heaven, and in the Most Blessed Sacrament of the altar.

-Fr. Michael

July 28 - Are you giving everything? (John 6: 1-15)

In his plan, God chose to "need" our five loaves. Have we given everything? Sometimes we have been generous and have given three or four loaves. But the real miracle comes when we keep nothing and give everything.

August 4 - Ask for deeper faith. (John 6: 24-35)

A common misunderstanding is to make our faith dependent on signs: if we receive a sign then we will believe. But true faith is faith in God and therefore, precedes any sign. For the Lord, the logic is the opposite: when you believe you see the signs of his presence.

August 11 - Jesus draws close to you in the Eucharist.

(John 6: 41-51)

We need to be aware of the risk of routine: God becomes so close to us that we may get used to his divine presence. And yet, this is the good news: that in the Eucharist, sacrament of presence, we can be with God always; He found a way to be with us, to live in us.

August 18 - Among us. Inside us. (John 6: 51-58)

Wherefore this also Christ has done, to lead us to a closer friendship, and to show His love for us; He has given to those who desire Him not only to see Him, but even to touch, and eat Him, and fix their teeth in His flesh, and to embrace Him, and satisfy all their love. Let us then return from that table like lions breathing fire, having become terrible to the devil; thinking on our Head, and on the love which He has shown for us. (St. John Chrysostom)

August 25 - Do you also want to leave? (John 6: 60-69)

Each one of us join Peter in his heartfelt confession: "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come To believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God."
