St. Benedict Memorial July 11

St. Benedict lived from 480-550 A.D. He is considered the Founder of Western Monasticism, having founded a monastery at Monte Cassino, Italy about the year 529 A.D.

Benedict established a Rule for his community, standards by which the monks should strive to live. Some of the standards only apply to monastery life. However, we can and should apply many of the other standards during our pilgrimage for there is great wisdom in them, several of which are found below.

St. Benedict, please pray for us, that we may grow in holiness and become more Christ-like.

"Do not hoard possessions or cling to worldly desires, for true wealth lies in the virtue of the soul."

"Idleness is the enemy of the soul; and therefore the brethren ought to be employed in manual labor at certain times, at others, in devout reading.

"And let them first pray together, that so they may associate in peace."

"He should first show them in deeds rather than words all that is good and holy."

"Do not engage in idle gossip or spread rumors, for they are the seeds of discord."

"Do not be daunted immediately by fear and run away from the road that leads to salvation. It is bound to be narrow at the outset. But as we progress in this way of life and in faith, we shall run on the path of God's commandments, our hearts overflowing with the inexpressible delight of love."

"The first step towards humility is to keep the fear of God in mind at all times."

"Whatever good work you begin to do, beg of God with most earnest prayer to perfect it."

"Run while you have the light of life!"

"Be obedient and humble in all things, for these virtues lead to true holiness."

"Do not let the passions of the flesh rule over you, but discipline your body and mind."

"Do not seek praise or recognition for your actions, but do everything for the glory of God alone."

"Do not be envious of the gifts or talents of others, but cultivate your own unique abilities."

"Be gentle and patient with others, for we all have our own struggles and weaknesses."

"Forgive those who have wronged you, for forgiveness is the path to inner peace."

"Do not be swayed by the opinions or actions of the worldly, but hold fast to the teachings of Christ."

"Cultivate gratitude and thankfulness in all circumstances, for it is through gratitude that we find contentment."

"Be content with the simple and humble life, for it is in simplicity that you will find true joy."

FUNERAL PROCESSION ETIQUETTE
 The auto industry is constantly adding safety features on vehicle models, such as automatic daytime headlights. These days people don't even notice headlights on during the day. They don't recognize a funeral procession as it passes by. To make the procession more visible and alert other drivers, turn on your flashers if you are a part of the procession. People notice flashers. The recently departed deserve this final sign of respect. Share this information with as many people as you can.

MINIMIZE CAPITAL GAINS TAXES WHEN SELLING STOCK

Your lifetime investments can be less through capital gains taxes when you sell. Rather than sell your stock, consider giving some of it to your parish.
