Stay Awake - the Four Last Things

Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour. (Mt 25:13)

The Four Last Things: Death, Judgment, Heaven, Hell. Every November, as we rapidly approach the end of the Church year, the Church, as a loving Mother, reminds us of this reality, of our mortality and what lies beyond that. So, it is my duty to remind you and me of this reality. Every human being who has lived, and will live, will experience three of these four. Death, then Judgment, then either Heaven or Hell. I will step aside now and let some of the saints share their Godly wisdom regarding these sobering realities.

-Fr. Michael

Heaven and hell are inevitable, but the choice between them is up to us.
-St. Teresa of Avila

There is nothing more certain than death and nothing more uncertain than the hour of death -St. Thomas Aquinas

Hell is a place for those who reject God's love and mercy -St. John Bosco

...is not he a fool who seeks after happiness in this world, where he will remain only a few days and exposes himself to the risk of being unhappy in the next, where we must live fore eternity? We do not fix our affections on borrowed goods, because we know that they must soon be returned to the owner. All the goods of this earth are lent to us... -St. Alphonsus di Ligouri

When once you have departed this life, there is no longer any place for repentance, no way of making satisfaction. Here life is either lost or kept. Here, by the worship of God and by the fruit of faith, provision is made for eternal salvation. Let no one be kept back either by his sins or by his years from coming to obtain salvation. To him who still remains in this world there is no repentance that is too late. -St. Cyprian of Carthage

If we were required to die twice, we could jettison one death. But man dies once only, and upon this death depends his eternity. Where the tree falls, there it shall lie. If, at the hour of death, someone is living in bad habit, the poor soul will fall on the side of hell. If, on the other hand, he is in the state of grace, it will take the road for heaven. Oh, happy road! -St. John Vianney

How consoling it is to see a just man die! His death is good, because it ends his miseries; it is better still, because he begins a new life; it is excellent, because it places him in sweet security. From this bed of mourning, whereon he leaves a precious load of virtues, he goes to take possession of the true land of the living, Jesus acknowledges him as His brother and as His friend, for he has died to the world before closing his eyes from its dazzling light. Such is the death of the saints, a death very precious in the sight of God.
-St. Bernard of Clairvaux

Hell is eternal punishment for those who do not turn away from their sins.
-St. Peter Damian

Hell is full of souls who have had time for anything but prayer.
-St. Teresa of Calcutta

There is nothing more beautiful than the thought of eternity spent with God in heaven. -St. Catherine of Siena

Questions were raised about any left-over food from the Bazaar's spaghetti dinner & the chili/chicken noodle supper. The supper on Saturday evening was a complete sell out, with nothing left over. The spaghetti dinner did have extra noodles, sauce, & milk, which was donated to Under the Umbrella for their free meals program
