2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

2025 - Jubilee Year of Hope

The Church has entered a Jubilee Year of Hope. A jubilee year is a special period of grace, of reconciliation, forgiveness, and healing, first and foremost with God, and...with neighbor.

The faithful are strongly encouraged to make a pilgrimage(s) during jubilee years in order to obtain special graces, among such graces are indulgences. Here, we will revisit the Church's teachings on indulgences, yet another example of God's merciful love for us that He offers through the Church.

Archbishop Aquila has designated nine Archdiocesan parishes that will serve as pilgrimage sites this year, among them is St. Anthony in Sterling.

Indulgences

What are indulgences and why are they important?

The Church teaches that there are primarily two consequences to our sins:

1) Eternal consequences for any unconfessed, unrepented-of mortal sin. Eternal? If we do not confess and repent of/flee from these, we face eternity in Hell.

The eternal consequences can be remitted/removed: a) any way God decides. If we are truly repentant, God can forgive us outside of the Sacraments, and b) via the Sacraments of Baptism and Confession/Reconciliation.

2) Temporal consequences, which are in part - removing any attachment to sin or any disordered affection to created goods and to make reparation for sins that have been forgiven.

The temporal consequences can be remitted/removed: a) Once again, any way God chooses, and b) through obtaining indulgences. Indulgences remit/remove the temporal consequences associated with sins that have been forgiven. The Church has the ability to grant indulgences under her Christ-given authority to bind and loose.

How does a person obtain an indulgence?

Requirements: detachment from sin (even venial), confession within about 20 days, Communion, and prayer for the Pope's intentions (e.g., an Our Father and Hail Mary). Each indulgence requires a separate Communion and prayer, ideally on the day of the indulgenced act. Only one plenary (full remission) indulgence can be obtained per day.

From: <https://www.ncregister.com/news/jubilee-2025-indulgences>

If physically able, make a prayerful visit to a designated pilgrimage site, such as St. Anthony.

Indulgences can be applied for oneself or for the souls in Purgatory. (Catechism #1498)

Once again, for additional information and details throughout this year please continue to refer to the Archdiocesan magazine the Denver Catholic.

St. Anthony of Padua, Sterling

Last Week's offertory: $6,902.00

Prayers and Condolences are offered to the families of John Ertle and Raymond Hofmann. May they rest in peace.

A beautiful rosary was found in the church after 7:00am Mass Sunday, January 5. If you have misplaced yours, call the office and we will make sure it gets back to you.

The office will be closed Monday, January 20 in observance of Martin Luther King Jr Day. We will re-open Tuesday, January 21, at 8:00 am.

Happy New Year! Our first meeting of the new year will be January 20, at 6:00pm, in the Knights of Columbus Hall. Please bring a dish to pass and get ready for lots of laughs. Hope to see you there.

Dear parishioners of St. Anthony, St Catherine, & Sacred Heart: I would like to thank you all for the Christmas cards and gifts. I am truly grateful for your kind words, warm messages & generosity. May God reward you and bless you always! Fr. Enrique

I want to express my sincere gratitude to all who helped to make our 2024 Christmas Season more beautiful. (My sincere apologies to anyone whom I don't mention. Please be at peace with the fact that God knows who you are, and it is of course far more important that He knows.)

- * Those who decorated our churches & took the decorations down after.
- * Those who helped lead us in song.
- * Those who cleaned our churches.
- * Those who served in any way: readers, ushers, servers, and others.

Considering all the difficulties and challenges that we as a parish faced, Christmas served as a welcome reminder of the One who is our hope, the One who offers us the peace that this world cannot give. May Our Lord richly bless and reward all of you.
- Fr. Michael

I would like to thank everyone who attended our Religious Education's "A Dinner Theater: The First Christmas". Your kindness and support of the children meant so much to them, and to us as well. Without you, this would never have been so successful. May God bless you and watch over you.

Sincerely, Jennifer Rodine,
Religious Ed. Director

Contribution statements will be available starting Friday, January 31. In an effort to save on postage, we will be printing statements ONLY if you request one. This applies to parishioners at all 3 parishes. Please call the office during regular business hours to request your statement.
