Do Not Let Your Hearts Be Troubled

With most of our bulletin fronts, I guess I can be accurately accused of taking the easy way out, relying on quotes from the Bible and from the Communion of Saints, what I call “Godly wisdom.” To that I plead, GUILTY! I admit that I’m not likely to do better than the saints and I certainly cannot do better than the Bible.

This time around I would like to focus on what they say about anxiety/worry.

-Fr. Michael

Jesus, to His Apostles at the Last Supper, the night before He was crucified, in the midst of their sadness, He consoles them and He reminds us for our times of sadness: Do not let your hearts be troubled. You have faith in God; have faith also in Me. (John 14:1)

“Do not be troubled or weighed down with grief. Do not fear any illness or vexation, anxiety, or pain. Am I not here who am your mother? Are you not under my shadow and protection? Am I not your fountain of life? Are you not in the folds of my mantle? In the crossing of my arms? Is there anything else you need?” – Our Lady of Guadalupe

“Lay all your cares about the future trustingly in God’s hands, and let yourself be guided by the Lord just like a little child.” – St. Teresa Benedicta

“And of what should we be afraid? Our captain on this battlefield is Christ Jesus. We have discovered what we have to do. Christ has bound our enemies for us and weakened them that they cannot overcome us unless we so choose to let them. So we must fight courageously and mark ourselves with the sign of the most Holy Cross.” – St. Catherine of Siena

“Lord, help me to live this day, quietly, easily. To lean upon Thy great strength, trustfully, restfully. To wait for the unfolding of Thy will, patiently, serenely. To meet others, peacefully, joyously. To face tomorrow, confidently, courageously.” – St. Francis of Assisi

“Do not fear what may happen tomorrow; the same understanding Father who cares for you today will take care of you then and every day.” – St. Francis de Sales

“Pray, hope, and don’t worry. Worry is useless. God is merciful and will hear your prayer.” – St. Pio of Pietrelcina (Padre Pio)

“My Jesus, if you uphold me, I shall not fall.” – St. Philip Neri

Let nothing disturb you,
Let nothing frighten you,
All things are passing away:
God never changes.
Patience obtains all things
Whoever has God lacks nothing;
God alone suffices. – St. Teresa of Avila
