Father's Day 2025

On this occasion of Father's Day I will draw exclusively from the Bible, sharing its Godly wisdom regarding Our Father, fathers, and their children,... us, and how we should relate to each other.

Thank you, Dads, for all you do! May Our Lord richly reward you for all your sacrifices.

Nothing gives me greater joy than to hear that my children are walking in the truth. (3 John 4)

The father of a just man will exult with glee; he who begets a wise son will have joy in him. (Proverbs 23:24)

However, take care and be earnestly on your guard not to forget the things which your own eyes have seen, nor let them slip from your memory as long as you live, but teach them to your children and to your children's children. (Deuteronomy 4:9) [i.e., the importance of handing on the Faith]

Which one of you would hand his son a stone when he asks for a loaf of bread, or a snake when he asks for a fish? If you then, who are wicked, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give good things to those who ask him. (Matthew 7:9-11)

Hear, O children, a father's instruction, be attentive, that you may gain understanding! Yes, excellent advice I give you; my teaching do not forsake. When I was my father's child, frail, yet the darling of my mother, He taught me, and said to me: "Let your heart hold fast my words: keep my commands, that you may live! "Get wisdom, get understanding! Do not forget or turn aside from the words I utter. (Proverbs 4:1-5)

Children, obey your parents in everything, for this is pleasing to the Lord. Fathers, do not provoke your children, so they may not become discouraged. (Colossians 3:20-21)

Endure your trials as "discipline"; God treats you as sons. For what "son" is there whom his father does not discipline? (Hebrews 12:7)

Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. "Honor your father and mother." This is the first commandment with a promise, "that it may go well with you and that you may have a long life on earth." Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up with the training and instruction of the Lord. (Ephesians 6:1-4)

Train a boy in the way he should go; even when he is old, he will not swerve from it. (Proverbs 22:6)

Take to heart these words which I enjoin on you today. Drill them into your children. Speak of them at home and abroad, whether you are busy or at rest. (Deuteronomy 6:6-7)

Denver Archbishop calls for end to violence that 'only fuels hatred'

Expressing his deep sadness at news of an antisemitic attack in Boulder, Colorado, the Archbishop of Denver, Samuel Aquila, calls for prayers for victims, saying, "This type of violence must come to an end, as it only fuels hatred." He invited prayers "for everyone affected by this horrific attack," saying, "We ask the Lord to bring comfort, healing, and peace in the face of such hatred. May we listen to the voice of God who calls us to love one another!" Archbishop Aquila's statement follows the teaching of the Second Vatican Council, which stated, "In her rejection of every persecution against any man, the Church, mindful of the patrimony she shares with the Jews, and moved not by political reasons but by the Gospel's spiritual love, decries hatred, persecutions, displays of anti-Semitism, directed against Jews at any time and by anyone." Nostra aetate, the Council's document on the Church and non-Christian religions, adds, "The Church reproves, as foreign to the mind of Christ, any discrimination against men or harassment of them because of their race, colour, condition of life, or religion."
