Saint Padre Pio and Saint Vincent de Paul

St. Padre Pio Feast day: September 23

Patron saint of: Civil defense volunteers, Adolescents, &

Pietrelcina Born: 1887 Died: 1968 Canonized: Pope John Paul II

St. Padre Pio was an Italian priest who was known for his piety and charity, as well as the gift of the stigmata, which has never been explained. St. Padre Pio was born Francesco Forgione, on May 25, 1887, in Pietrelcina, Italy. As a child, he was very religious and by the age of five he reportedly made the decision to dedicate his life to God. Francisco served as an altar boy at his local parish. From a young age Francisco could see guardian angels, spoke with Jesus and the Virgin Mary. In 1897, after three years of schooling, Francisco expressed to his parents that he wanted to become a friar. His parents traveled to a community of monks and asked if Francesco could join them. He was evaluated and was told that he needed more education before he could join. At the age of 15, Francisco was finally ready and he entered the novitiate of the Capuchin friars at Morcone. He took the name of "Pio" in honor of Pope Pius I. Brother Pio became a priest in 1910, then in 1915 with World War I afflicting the world, Padre Pio was summoned for military service. On September 20, 1916 Padre Pio was hearing confessions when he felt pain in his hands and feet and the stigmata, the wounds of Christ, appeared on them. Bleeding, the wounds smelled of roses. By 1919, word began to spread about Padre Pio's stigmata and people came from far away to examine him. Padre Pio became popular with the people and soon began to attribute supernatural occurrences to him. He was said to levitate, and perform miracles. Padre Pio died on September 23, 1968.

Saint Vincent de Paul Feast day: September 27

Patron saint of: charities, horses, hospitals, prisoners

Born: 1581 Died: 1660

Beatified: August 13, 1729 by Pope Benedict XIII

Canonized: June 16, 1737 by Pope Clement XII

St. Vincent de Paul was born to a poor peasant family in the French village of Pouy on April 24, 1581. His first formal education was provided by the Franciscans. He continued his formal studies at the University of Toulouse where he studied theology. He was ordained in 1600, then went to Avignon and later to Rome to continue his studies. While there he became a chaplain to the Count of Goigny and was placed in charge of distributing money to the deserving poor. From that point forward he spent his life preaching missions to and providing relief to the poor. He even established hospitals for them. This work became his passion. He later extended his concern and ministry to convicts. The need to evangelize and assist these souls was so great and the demands beyond his own ability to meet that he founded the Ladies of Charity, a lay institute of woman, to help, as well as a religious institute of priests – the Congregation of Priests of the Mission, commonly referred to now as the Vincentians. This was at a time when there were not many priests in France and what priests there were, were neither well-formed nor faithful to their way of life. Vincent helped reform the clergy and the manner in which they were instructed and prepared for the priesthood. He did this first through the presentation of retreats and later by helping develop a precursor to our modern day seminaries. At one point his community was directing 53 upper level seminaries. His retreats, open to priests and laymen, were so well attended that it is said he infused a "Christian spirit among more than 20,000 persons in his last 23 years." Saint Vincent died in Paris on September 27, 1660.
