OCTOBER 19, 2025 TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

As the leaves fall and the year draws toward its close, the Church invites us into a sacred time known as Hallowtide — three holy days dedicated to honoring the communion of saints, praying for the faithful departed, and reflecting on the hope of eternal life.

October 31st - All Hallows' Eve - Halloween

All Hallows' Eve or commonly known as Halloween has deep roots in the early catholic church. In the early Church, great feasts often began the night before with a vigil of prayer and preparation. All Hallows' Eve was meant to help Christians get ready to celebrate all the saints in Heaven the next day. It was a time to reflect on the victory of God's light over darkness and to remember that death is not the end for those who follow Christ. Up until the late 1950's this was a vigil Mass in its own right.

Trick-or-treating is a custom that comes from an ancient English custom of knocking on doors to beg for a "soul cake" in exchange, the beggar promises to pray for the dead of the household. In places like Ireland and Scotland children would dress in disguise and visit homes to sing songs, recite verses, and perform tricks for coins or food. Today it is a mix of these two traditions and looked at by many as a fun evening; however, we should remember that it is a time of preparing for All Saints' Day and therefore a time of reflection, praying for those in purgatory, and acts of generosity.

November 1st - All Saints' Day

A day that is mostly forgotten by the majority of the public, but for Catholics it is a day of Holy Obligation to attend Mass and to pray for those that have gone to heaven before us. This is a day that we remember that we are a church on Earth and in Heaven. This is a time that we remember that we have eternal life and that the church is made up of three parts - the Church Triumphant, or the saints in Heaven, the Church Suffering, these are the souls in purgatory, and the Church Militant, those of us still living on earth; together we make the Communion of Saints. When we pray at Mass during the Eucharistic prayer and Father says "with the Communion of Saints" this is what he is referring to. All the parts of the church.

November 2nd - All Souls' Day

All Souls' Day is the last day in the Hallowtide. This is a day that we set aside to specifically pray for the dead and those in purgatory or the Church Suffering. A great tradition that we have as Catholics is that we go to the cemeteries to pray and decorate the graves of our loved ones. In some countries this is known as the Day of the Dead, and celebrations are held to honor those that have gone before us. This day helps us to reflect and bring us closer to our Lord. Happy Hallowtide.
