Christmas, just a few short days away. By now, we hope the house is decorated inside and out, the presents bought and under the tree, Christmas parties enjoyed, concerts attended, cookies baked, Christmas movies watched and Christmas music listened too. The best and busiest time of the year is finally reaching its climax. But why do we do all these things? What is the point?

If we do these things because of a sense of obligation or everyone else is doing them, we miss the entire point of both seasons, Advent and Christmas. Advent prepares us for Christmas as does all the things I listed above, and we must never forget that Christmas is a Season, not a day. But we Christians don't do these things from obligation or to mimic our neighbors. Our activity comes from, and should come from, a deep sense of love of God and love of neighbor.

Fundamentally, we Catholics live our faith. Our activities reflect what is deep in our hearts and reflects the love that God has for us, all of us, and in return our love for Him. We especially show this love for God at Christmas since once again Immanuel comes into our lives, God is with us. We live in a physical world, and we must act our faith in that physical world. And if a single person finds joy in how we decorated our house, finds happiness in one present that they unwrap on Christmas day, finds warmth and joy in our companionship at a party or concert, enjoys one cookie that we baked, they come closer to the joy of Christmas and in the end, closer to Jesus Christ. All this activity comes from and returns to what is in our hearts.

And all our activity, all our prayers and preparation during Advent, focus on what Isaiah told us over 700 years before Jesus Christ was born: "Behold, a virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel." And "The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light....For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be upon his shoulder, and his name will be called "Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and of peace there will be no end, upon the throne of David, and over his kingdom, to establish it, and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time forth and for evermore. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this."

Isaiah foretold and Jesus fulfilled. The loving act of God sending his only begotten Son to become human, to become one of us in everything except sin. God acts from His great love for us, and He expects us to act from our Faith in Him, our Love for His Son, and Hope in His salvation. This year celebrate Christmas from your heart and in the coming year commit to act on your faith, to volunteer for a ministry, to give from your very soul to the God that loves you and believes in you.

Believe and live our faith, Deacon Bernie

The staff of St. Anthony’s, St. Catherine’s, & Sacred Heart would like to extend our gratitude to the wonderful owners of Halouska Family-Chaney Reager & Tennant Funeral Homes for their generosity. Every Christmas season they graciously pay for next year’s calendars, allowing us to choose which themes & pictures best represent our faith & beliefs. As one owner famously said when we thanked him “You do all the hard work, I just pay the bill.” Without their help, we would not be able to have such fine calendars available to you, our parishioners. If you happen to see them out & about, you may just want to say “Thanks.”
